2 of 2 review helpful Hillerman Country By Alabama Girl The Tony Hillerman books have helped me break the TV boob toob habit I ve gathered them all and am going through the list in order so good I bought this book Hillman Country because I ve learned to love the country he describes and because I ve loved my trips to Santa Fe and the southwest And I appreciate and love and the author so glad his daughter is This book portrays the unique landscape of the American south west in both words and pictures Hillerman affectionately describes the land of his stories and what draws him to the land what planted the seeds of each novel He speaks movingly about the people who inhabit the land from the Indians Navojos Mepis Zunis who have lived there for centuries to the Anglos who chose to settle in such forbidding surroundings He explains the customs and cultures of these people From Library Journal Beginning with The Blessing Way 1970 Tony Hillerman's innovative mystery series centered on Joe Leaphorn and Jim Chee of the Navajo Tribal Police has introduced readers to the lands, peoples, customs, and cultural clashes of the Southwest
