0 of 0 review helpful Great little book for any art lover By Carol C Morgan I purchased A Garden for Art Outdoor Sculpture at the Hirshhorn Museum from This is a wonderful little book for anyone who loves art and particularly sculpture If you are visiting the Hirshhorn Museum read it before you go If you have already gone read it again It made a great gift and then I got one for myself The Hirshhorn Museum s sculpture garden provides a contemplative haven in the heart of Washington More than sixty sculptures in a broad range of styles dating from the 1880s through the 1960s are displayed in it while another dozen sculptures from the 1960s to the 1990s occupy the plaza around the museum building Together the landscaped grounds form an outdoor gallery that is enjoyed by more than 340 000 visitors annually In her introductory e About the Author Valerie Fletcher is Curator of Sculpture at the Hirshhorn
