1 of 1 review helpful Coastal Carolina NC By FLS Found the guide to be very accurate and it was very helpful as I planned a trip using Chart Kit Region 6 The Guide confirmed some of the questionable areas noted on the charts Also the info on marinas was helpful in planning a days run as traveling by sail is a longer and slower day info on fuel was helpful I would like to have seen a mileage reference chart A very The only cruising guide devoted exclusively to North Carolina this book covers almost every body of water along the coast as far inland as it is safe to navigate The guide includes historical summaries coastal folklore listings of coastal marinas and their services and tips on shoreside attractions About the Author Claiborne S Young has been an avid boater for most of his life He is recognized as an authority on the Southeast's coastal waters and has appeared on public television specials about the Intracoastal Waterway He lives in Burlington NC
