0 of 0 review helpful Hug Morton s North Carolina By E Brennan I gave this book to my Brother and Sister in law for Christmas They are with the State Department therefore they are stationed in countries all over the world In each country they have lived in they have a book to remember their time there They originally hail from North Carolina so when I saw this book I knew it was the perfect gift I was correct Th Hugh Morton has had a long and active public life as an environmentalist developer and promoter of tourism His favorite role however is that of news photographer Hugh Morton s North Carolina gathers hundreds of photographs from his sixty year career including unpublished images from his personal collection and many well known images of the state s people and places The collection is divided into three sections Scenes ranges from the coast to t From Publishers Weekly A bit like the Forrest Gump of North Carolina Morton has apparently managed to be present at almost all of the most important events in the state s history It s understandable considering he s one of the region s top photojournalists
